Mission Statement

Our Lady of the Hills Roman Catholic Church is inspired by the Holy Spirit and formed by the Gospel, under the patronage of Mary, the Mother of Jesus. As one family under God, the Father, we welcome all who come to us and are particularly mindful of those in need.

Our Lady of the Hills Capital Campaign Prayer

Almighty God, Our Heritage, Our Hope. with grateful hearts, we place all that we have and all that we are, at the service of your will. May the offering of our time, talent, and treasure, be guided by the generous out pouring of the Holy Spirit. Bring to perfection what we have begun in faith. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen. Our Lady of the Hills ...pray for us.

EVANGELIZATION

Do you know of someone who might be interested in learning about the Catholic faith? An invitation to learn more about the Catholic faith through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is extended, without obligation, to any interested person. The teaching that the Church ceaselessly proclaims does not change with the passing of time: human life is beautiful and should be lived to the full, even when it is weak and enveloped in the mystery of suffering. --Pope Benedict XVI, Message for the World Day of the Sick, February 11, 2009

“God and Human Suffering”

In this workshop we shall seek answers to two questions. First, if God is the giver of life (Exodus 3:1-15) and “Our Father” (Matthew 6:9-13), what’s the relationship between God and our hardships? Second, what’s the relationship between the passion of Jesus Christ and our suffering (Roman 6:5-8)? Guided by these questions we will reflect on passages in the Old and New Testaments. And, as we do so, we’ll draw on four texts: On the Christian Meaning of Human Suffering: Salvifici Doloris (1984) by Pope John Paul II, Saved In Hope: Spe Salve (2007) by Pope Benedict XVI, Why Do We Suffer? (2000) by Daniel Harrington, S.J., Romano Guardini: Spiritual Writings (2005) by Robert A. Krieg.
